

Key Findings

- A plastic hoisting for temporary guard rail construction around door opening and stairwell-received the work is hazardous. Worker fell from the device could prevent fall protection production.
- Safety devices were performed a construction site using a hanging scaffold on